This chart shows the change in mortgage lending across the postcode districts in Hackney. The total volume of lending in the 12 months to Q2 2018 was £13,766 million, compared with £13,811 million a year earlier, a change of -0.3%.

1. Affordability

Source: Council Tax Base

0.6% of residential properties in Hackney were recorded as second homes in 2018 according to Council Tax Base data. This is lower than the England average, suggesting high levels of second home ownership are unlikely to be a significant problem, though other sources should be considered.

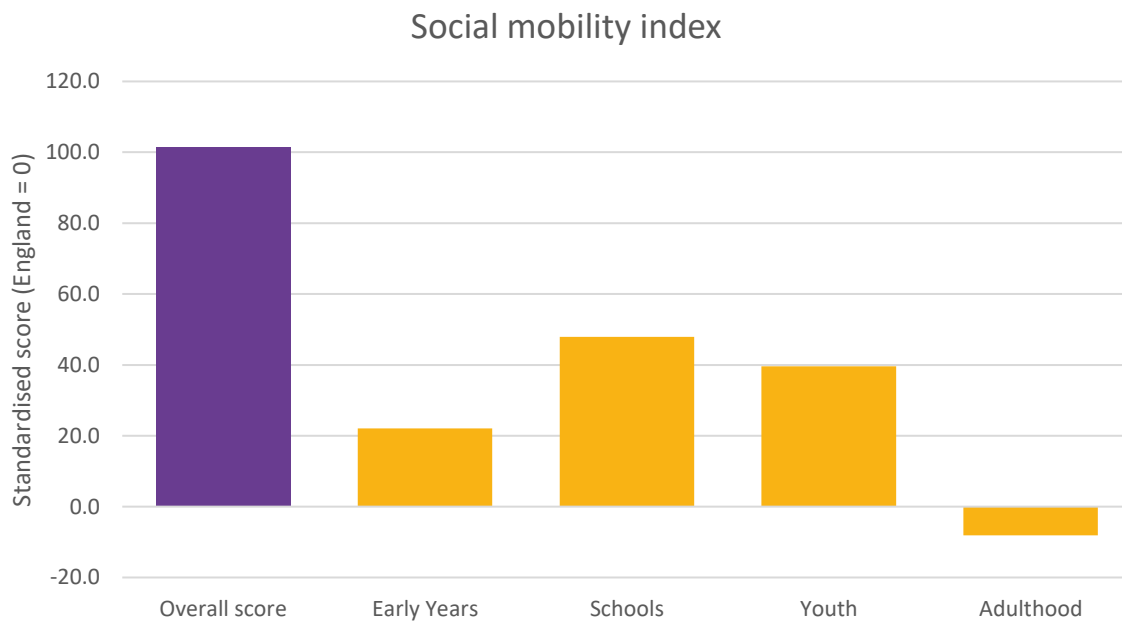

Source: 2001 and 2011 Census

27.6% of households in Hackney were rented privately according to the 2011 Census, compared to 14.7% in 2001. The England average changed from 8.8% to 15.4% over the same period.

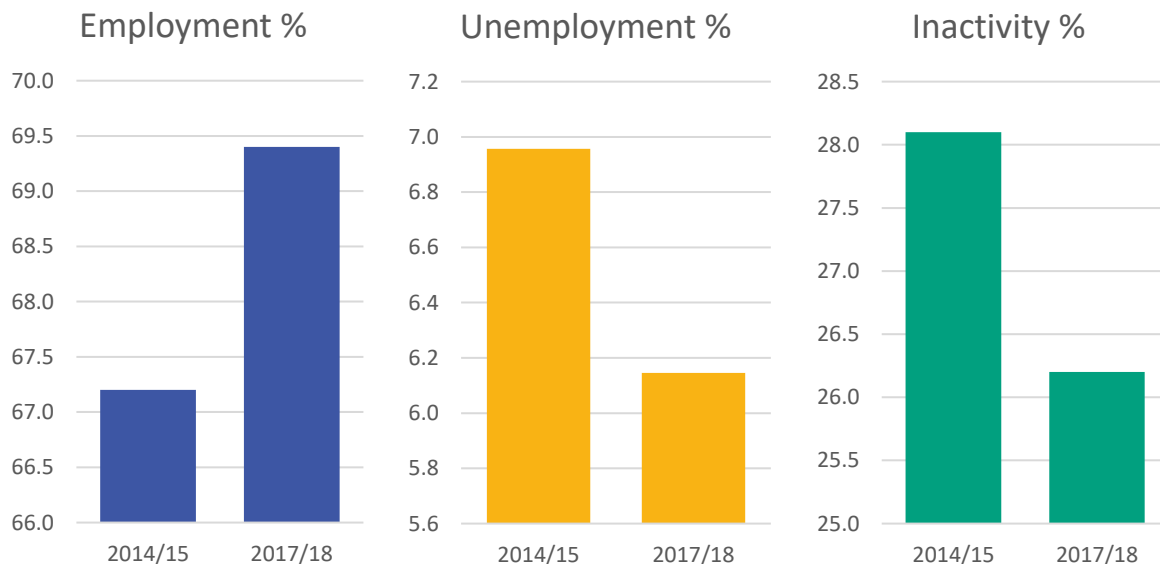

2.4% of the PRS households in Hackney comprised only students in 2011, compared with 3.7% in England, suggesting students are not a significant part of the local PRS market.

1. Affordability

Source: Social Mobility Index

Hackney received an overall standardised score of 101.4 in the 2017 Social Mobility Index, compared to the England average of zero. Hackney ranks as 5/324 for overall score across all English local authorities for which data is available. Local house price affordability is likely to be a further barrier to social mobility in this area.
